

A COMPARATIVE LIST OF THE DERGE AND LHASA EDITIONS OF THE KANJUR

by ERIK HAARH

Until now the following indices or comparative lists of contents of the various xylographed editions of the Tibetan Kanjur have been accessible:

I The *Ōtani Catalogue*¹ of the Peking edition of the Kanjur, now supplemented by the index volumes 165-168 of the Japanese phototype reprint edition of the Peking Kanjur and Tanjur.²

II The Tōhoku Catalogue, also called *Ui's Catalogue*³ of the Derge edition of both Kanjur and Tanjur.

III *Mibu's Comparative List*⁴ of the Co-ne edition of the Kanjur.

IV The Narthang edition is known from *Csoma's Analysis*⁵ and from references found in both the Ōtani Catalogue and Mibu's Comparative List.

V Manuscript copies of the Kanjur are known through *Beckh's Verzeichniss*⁶ and Barnett's mDo Catalogue.⁷

The following comparative list of the Derge and Lhasa editions of the

² The Tibetan Tripitaka, Peking edition, reprinted. Reprinted under the supervision of the Ōtani University, Kyoto 1955-6, 168 vols.

³ A complete catalogue of the Tibetan Buddhist Canons. Edited by Hakuju Ui, Munetada Suzuki, Yenshō Kanakura, and Tōkan Tada. Published by Tōhoku Imperial University, Sendai 1934. (Comprises texts nos. 1-1108+4568 (Index) of the Kanjur.)

A catalogue-index of the Tibetan Buddhist Canons. Published by Tōhoku Imperial University, Sendai 1934. (Comprises indices of Tibetan, Sanskrit, Chinese and 'Bru-za.)

I. J. Schmidt, Index des tibetischen Kandjur, herausgegeben von d. Kais. Akad. d. Wissenschaften zu St. Petersburg, 1845, lithographed in 100 copies, is a reproduction of an index of the Derge Kanjur edition.

⁵ Asiatick Researches, vol. XX, 1842. French translation by Léon Feer, Analyse du Kanjur. Annales du Musée Guimet II, 1881.

⁷ L. D. Barnett, Index der Abteilung mDo der handschriftlichen Kanjur im Britischen Museum (Or. 6724). Asia Major VII, 1932, pp. 157-78.

Tibetan Kanjur is arranged so that the text numbers of the Derge edition i.e. of the Tōhoku Catalogue, serve as index numbers.

The indices of the Tōhoku Catalogue, therefore, serve as indices to this comparative list.

The indices of Mibu's Comparative List also serve as indices to this comparative list, because Mibu's Comparative List indicates the text number of the Tōhoku Catalogue at each text of the Co-ne edition.

At the end of this comparative list is given a list of numbers of texts in the Derge edition (Tōhoku Catalogue) which are not included in the Lhasa edition. At the same place is given a short description of thirteen texts of the Lhasa edition which are not included in the Derge edition and the Tōhoku Catalogue.

The comparative list is drawn up in the following way: first the reference number(s) of the Tōhoku Catalogue, and then references to the text(s) in the Lhasa edition:

e.g.: 95: mDo Kha, 48, 1b-352a

Tōhoku text no. 95 is identical with Lhasa Kanjur, section mDo, volume Kha; volume no. 48 of the whole Lhasa Kanjur, folio 1 verso to folio 352 recto.

When a text comprises only one page or some lines of a page in the Lhasa edition, the numbers of the first and the last lines of the text are indicated.

The following symbols are used in the comparative list:

- : identity between texts in both the Derge and the Lhasa editions.
- = identity between two or more texts of the Derge edition. To find all references to the Lhasa edition of the text in question, one has to look up all the numbers of the Tōhoku Catalogue indicated at the place in question.
- ~ partly or not yet ascertained identity between texts of the Derge edition.
- a recto side of a folio.
- b verso side of a folio.
