

Duan-Mu Kai's Biography:
A Lawyer, A Politician and an Educationist

Liu, Yi-Chun

Abstract

Duan-Mu Kai (1903-1987), a Doctor of Juristic Science of New York University, played three important positions in his life: a famous lawyer, an outstanding politician and an enthusiastic educationist. He taught at Anhwei University, Fudan University, Soochow University, Chi Nan University, Central University, also undertook various senior officials to assist government in dealing with public affairs. Besides, his general counsel was set up successively in Nanjing, Chungking, Shanghai and Taiwan. He who was a president of Soochow University for fourteen years devoted himself to an educational career late in life.

Keywords: Duan-Mu Kai, Lawyer, Politician, educationist,
Soochow University